SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 24, 1905.

Labor Unions Enjoined. United States Circuit Judge Morrow in San Francisco, has granted the ap-Danbury, Conn., for a temporary injunction against the California State Federation of Labor and the San Francisco Labor Council, which has been boycotting a local firm of jobbers in the hats manufactured by Loewe. The injunction pendente lite was granted on the ground that the unions had conseived the ground that the unions had conspired not only to protect themselves, but to destroy the property and ruin the business of the complainants.

The defendants contention was that they had employed neither force, threats nor intimidation, and had only urged upon the friends of labor the necessity of using their patronage for the benefit of labor, a constitutional right.

"But can it be truthfully said that this is all that has been done by them in enforcing the boycott" the court proeceds, and points out that this is the power of "combined numbers," and that the company is helpless "unless they surrender the Lianagement and control of their business to a labor organization. "All employees have the right to quit their employment, but no right to combine to quit in order thereby to compel their employer to withdraw from a mutually profitable relation with a third person for the purpose of injuring the third person, when the relation thus sought to be broken had no effect whatever upon the character or the reward of their services.'

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoftman, of Harper, Wash, "I had a bitter battle, with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and by the use of Electric Bitters. In unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." New York Daily Tribune. New York Dally Tribune.

If you are looking for a daily history of the world, carefully coilated and sifted and presented in the most attractive form that the facts and the laws of good taste will permit, you cannot make any mistake in reading the Tribune every day. It contains special articles on nearly every subject which is supposed to interest intelligent and clean-minded people, to say nothing of the illuminating and instructive editorial articles and reviews of books, music and the drams. Invest $\frac{1}{2}$ and get the daily and Sunday Tribune by mail for a month. With the Sunday Tribune goes a handsome illustrated supplement and a magazine, with color'd covers, equal to anything sold for ten cents.
